

CHAPTER 10

Latter-day Prophetic Kingdoms

Revelation 17:10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one IS {latter-day Babylon/coalition reigning as the sixth kingdom during the Chosen Vessel's initial ministry}, and the OTHER {beast of Babylon – next coalition – who reigns as the seventh kingdom} is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a SHORT SPACE {1293-½ days}.

17:11 And the BEAST {united coalition of Christendom} that WAS {reigning as the sixth kingdom}, and IS NOT {wounded, coalition divided}, even he is the EIGHTH {coalition's third reigning phase as the eighth kingdom}, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

Ezekiel 21:27 I {scroll of life's record} will OVERTURN {the coalition's reign as the sixth kingdom: latter-day confusion/Babylon}, OVERTURN {the coalition's reign as the seventh kingdom: latter-day Babylon/confusion}, OVERTURN, IT {the coalition's reign as the eighth kingdom: latter-day Babylon/confusion}: and it shall be no more, until HE {latter-day Darius/Chosen Vessel} come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

Revelation 13:18 Here is wisdom. Let HIM {Chosen Vessel} that hath understanding count {how many reigning phases} the number {six kingdom} of the {seven-headed} BEAST {representing each phase of the united coalition}: for it is the number of a MAN {false prophet/U.S.A.}; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six {666}.

Commentary: Only one person has wisdom to reveal the true meaning of the number (digit) that is written three times as 6, 6, and 6. It states to “count” the “number” of the seven-headed beast (representing the united coalition of nations). This digit/number of six (6) is also the number of a figurative man, representing the U.S.A. (false prophet/lamb-like beast, compare Revelation 13:11, 14 with 19:20). There are “three numbers” of six to count; therefore, the answer to the question is three – after counting the amount of digits (number sixes). Babylon/confusion, which is the name of the seven-headed beast/coalition of confusion, began its first reigning phase as the sixth kingdom in spiritual Goshen (Christendom) after five figurative kingdoms (beasts) had fallen. Therefore, its (latter-day Babylon's) number is six because it is the number six (sixth) kingdom.

When the dragon/beast of confusion/Babylon began its first reign – 1006-½ days after the latter-day fifth figurative kingdom (dragon/coalition) had fallen on April 19, 1993 – it was reigning in spiritual Goshen as the number six kingdom (united coalition) for 1293-½ days. Latter-day Babylon's 1293-½ days of reigning as the sixth kingdom – during its first of three reigning phases – ended 3-½ days after the first 2300-day period expired. After 1010 days elapsed from the second 2300-day period, the healed seven-headed Babylonian beast (next coalition) is reigning as the seventh kingdom in figurative Canaan (Christendom) for 1293-½ days. When latter-day Babylon's second reigning phase of 1293-½ days ends 3-½ days after the second 2300-day period, the Babylonian beast (coalition) remains wounded (divided) for 1006-½ days. After these 1006-½ days, the healed Babylonian beast (united coalition) reigns as the “eighth” kingdom in figurative Canaan for 1293-½ days – which expire 3-½ days after the third 2300-day period (see Revelation 17:10, 11). This latter-day “eighth” reigning kingdom (coalition), pertaining to the Babylonian beast in figurative Canaan, is the “image” of the previous seventh reigning Babylonian beast (coalition) in the figurative land of Canaan. Accordingly, it is the same seven-headed Babylonian beast (coalition) that is united (healed) each time by the false prophet (U.S.A.) during the Chosen Vessel's ministry.

The seven-headed beast's scriptural name – during the Chosen Vessel's ministry – is Babylon/confusion, as stated in Revelation 14:8. This Babylonian beast will have reigned as the sixth kingdom during three separate phases. It is the same Babylonian beast (coalition) that was, is not, and is again (see Revelation 13:3; 17:11). Babylon's number of 6 (sixth kingdom/coalition) is stated as 6, 6, and 6 because the same Babylonian beast (coalition) of confusion will have reigned three separate times – during the Chosen Vessel's ministry – as the sixth, seventh, and eighth kingdoms. In actuality, the beast (coalition) of latter-day Babylon reigned as the sixth kingdom and then received a wound. Thereafter, the Babylonian beast (next coalition) healed and currently reigns again as the sixth kingdom. Latter-day Babylon will, thereafter, receive another wound. When this latter wound heals, the Babylonian beast (last coalition) shall reign a third time as the same number “six” kingdom until a comet’s impact ends Babylon’s third reign. According to the reasons given above is why there are three sixes pertaining to the seven-headed beast of latter-day Babylon and the false prophet. The sixth kingdom – as Babylon – reigns as the sixth kingdom; the sixth kingdom – as Babylon – reigns as the seventh kingdom; the sixth kingdom – as Babylon – reigns as the eighth kingdom. Hereby, it is revealed that the Chosen Vessel has wisdom to count the number (digit) of 6 three times; hence, 6, 6, and 6.

Before the sixth kingdom – as latter-day Babylon – began its reign, the latter-day fifth reigning kingdom – as latter-day spiritual Egypt – was ruled by the spiritual Goshen dragon in spiritual Egypt. This fifth figurative kingdom is mentioned in Revelation 17:10. In our day, the spiritual Goshen dragon represented the nations of Christendom when they combined to become a coalition just before the first latter-day Man Child was prophetically anointed to begin his final ministry. It was the same coalition that liberated Kuwait from Iraq’s invasion. During the Goshen dragon’s reign as the fifth prophetic kingdom, David Koresh (first latter-day Man Child) was spiritually born from the church of the former messenger. In other words, he began to reveal his message to the church members after the prophet of that church had passed away. The people who believed that David Koresh was the next anointed messenger were represented as a woman (new church), who gave spiritual birth to his final ministry.

The first latter-day Man Child (David Koresh) was at Mount Carmel in Waco, Texas, prophesying as the latter-day Elijah-type messenger. On April 15, 1993, his moonlight-ministry was cut off from Christendom. This typified John the Baptist’s ministry that came to an end when he was imprisoned by the ruling king of Judah. The first Man Child’s ministry is recorded on the first four parts of the scroll of life’s first side. His death, and the death of many of his followers, is written on the fifth and sixth parts of the scroll of life's first side. Through the scenario surrounding the first latter-day Man Child's death, a wound of division was inflicted on the ruling head (U.S.A.'s capital) of the seven-headed Goshen dragon (coalition). The wound caused the leaders of the wounded head (capital) to no longer be of one mind in regards to keeping the coalition unified. This division caused the coalition of nations to be divided. Although before the wound, these confederated nations were as a seven-headed ten-horned dragon, which ruled as the fifth kingdom until one (U.S.A.'s capital) of its heads was wounded to death (leaders remained divided). The reigning phase pertaining to the Goshen dragon as the fifth prophetic kingdom is recorded on the first four parts of the scroll of life's first moonlight-side.

A wound was inflicted on April 19, 1993, that ended the dragon (coalition) of Goshen's (Christendom's) reign as the fifth reigning kingdom. The dragon (coalition) remained wounded (divided) for 1006-½ days during the first 2300-day period. Thereafter, the former coalition of Christian nations united to become the Babylonian beast. This beast ruled as the sixth prophetic kingdom in spiritual Goshen. A terrorist attack in Oklahoma City on April 19, 1995, in the U.S.A. had begun to heal (unite) the leaders in the ruling head (U.S.A.'s capital). Thereafter, they were no longer divided. This healing of the wounded head meant the U.S.A.'s leaders had regained the will and influence to unite the previous Christian coalition – which had ruled as the fifth kingdom – to rule as the sixth kingdom. This particular coalition had overthrown Slobodan Milosevic's government.

Prophetically – according to biblical prophetic scripture – the latter-day Babylonian beast (united coalition that is typified by the old tribes of Israel in Goshen) reigned as the sixth kingdom from spiritual Goshen in spiritual Egypt. The Babylonian dragon/beast of spiritual Goshen reigned for 1293-½ days as the sixth figurative kingdom. This healed kingdom (coalition) was the first of three reigning phases of the confederated nations of latter-day Babylon/confusion (Christendom). At that time, five previous kingdoms (confederated nations) had prophetically come and gone (see Revelation 17:10).

Near the end of the seven-headed ten-horned Babylonian (dragon's) beast's (coalition's) first reigning phase as the sixth kingdom, it received a wound on its ruling head (U.S.A.'s capital). This caused the leaders in the head to be divided; thereby, they had no unity or influence to keep the Babylonian beast (coalition) united. At that time, the 1293-½-day reigning phase of the Babylonian dragon/beast in spiritual Goshen had ended.

Throughout the first of three 1293-½-day reigns of Babylon/confusion – these days had ended 3-½ days after the first 2300-day period – the Chosen Vessel (latter-day Moses, Yahshua, and Jeremiah-type) was prophesying for 1260 days to gather his initial church (apostles) from spiritual Goshen. These 1260 days expired on the same day the first 2300-day period ended. The events that took place during Babylon's first reigning phase of 1293-½ days are written on the first six parts of the scroll of life's first evening-side, as simultaneously recorded by its second sunlight-side.

The wounded (divided) Babylonian beast prophetically departed from spiritual Goshen and journeyed through the spiritual wilderness to the figurative land of Canaan (see Revelation 17:3). This is likened to the past type; latter-day Babylon's journey through the spiritual wilderness is likened to rebellious tribes (Christendom's nations) being led by the false prophet (false Moses) to the figurative land of Canaan. The wounded beast's (representing the divided nations of the former coalition) spiritual wilderness journey took 1006-½ days; in that time, the nations of the coalition were divided. These 1006-½ days are of the second 2300-day period (see chart on page 211).

Another terrorist attack in New York City on September 11, 2001, in the U.S.A. caused the leaders in the U.S.A.'s capital (head) to be in unity. Accordingly, they had regained the will and influence to unite the former coalition. When the coalition of Christian nations (tribes) confederated together, they began to rule as the seventh figurative kingdom (Babylonian beast of Revelation 13:1) in figurative Canaan. Their rule from figurative Canaan, as the second reigning phase of Babylon, lasts 1293-½ days. This was the same coalition that overthrew the government of Saddam Hussein's Iraq.

Before the second 1293-½-day reigning phase of the Babylonian beast (united coalition) ends, it receives another wound on the same head (U.S.A.'s capital). This wound refers to the U.S.A.'s leaders being divided against each other when lies and cover-ups surface and are heralded by the media. Consequently, there is no influence to keep the coalition united. Therefore, the coalition of nations disbands. Accordingly, the Babylonian beast's reign as the seventh kingdom ends at the expiration of 1293-½ days. These 1293-½ days expire 3-½ days after the second 2300-day period ends (see chart on page 211).

During the Babylonian beast's (coalition's) second reigning phase as the seventh kingdom, the Chosen Vessel and his initial church are currently prophesying for 1260 days in the spiritual wilderness (see Revelation 12:6). For 42 months – which are the remaining 1263-½ days of the 1293-½-day reign of Babylon – of Revelation 13:5, the Babylonian beast (united coalition) is promoting its democratic, capitalistic religio-political ideals, which are contrary to the seventh angel's/little scroll's then present revelation. This is the reason the beast (coalition) is referred to as confusion/Babylon during the Chosen Vessel's ministry. Throughout the first spiritual wilderness journey of 1260 days, the 144,000 firstfruits of wheat should be brought forth. When these 1260 days expire, the second 2300-day period also ends. Three and a half (3-½) days later, the Babylonian beast's (coalition's) second 1293-½-day reigning phase expires (see chart on page 211).

The events that take place during the second 2300-day period are recorded on the seventh (Sabbath) part of the scroll of life's first evening-side and last daylight-side. Seven angels' phases of the duplicate sun's sunlight (representing the Chosen Vessel's ministry) move initially west to east in the Sabbath's (scroll of life's seventh/Sabbath part's first six angels and seventh angel) evening sky (representing the scroll of life's seventh part's first evening-side). At the same time, seven angels' phases of moonlight move initially east to west in the same Sabbath's evening sky. The phases of moonlight and duplicate sun's light are recorded on the scroll of life's first side and simultaneously by the seven angels' phases of the regular sun (woman in Revelation 12:1) moving east to west in the Sabbath's daylight sky (representing the scroll of life's seventh/Sabbath part's second side).

For 1006-½ days during the third 2300-day period, the seven-headed Babylonian beast (coalition) in figurative Canaan remains wounded (divided). Before these 1006-½ days expire, another terrorist attack will unite the leaders in the former beast's (former coalition's) ruling head (U.S.A.'s capital). Thereafter, the U.S.A. will unite the next coalition of nations to be the image (see Revelation 13:15) of the previous coalition (seven-headed beast). At that time, the image of the previous Babylonian beast of confusion begins its third reigning phase of 1293-½ days while dwelling in the figurative land of Canaan. Throughout these 1293-½ days, the image (next coalition) of the Babylonian beast (former coalition) enforces the U.S.A.'s ideals on certain rogue nations.

During the Babylonian beast's final/third reign, the Chosen Vessel with his initial church will prophetically return to the spiritual wilderness to eat spiritual manna (little scroll's words) for 1263-½ days (see Revelation 12:14). In the time of the initial 1260 days of these 1263-½ days, all the 144,000 will be ripened in Christendom with this doctrine of early and latter rain. During the 3-½ days before these 1260 days end, the 144,000 are harvested (removed) from Christendom. Throughout the remaining 3-½ days of the second spiritual wilderness journey of 1263-½ days, the sealing of a 144,000 firstfruits of wheat takes place. The third 2300 days (see Daniel 8:14) will have ended and then these 3-½ days of sealing begin (see chart on page 211). After the 3-½ days of sealing, the Babylonian beast's (coalition's) third reigning phase of 1293-½ days as the eighth kingdom (see Revelation 17:11) ends (see Revelation 14:8; Daniel 7:21, 22). A comet will impact the U.S.A., permanently wounding the ruling head (U.S.A.'s capital) of the Babylonian beast of confusion (see Daniel 2:45; Revelation 8:10). These events that take place during the third 2300-day period plus another 3-½ days are recorded on the little scroll's (seventh angel's) first and last side only.
